FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Nationally renowned ex-gang member Speaks in Santa Maria on Dec. 22

Roberto Flores will be the featured speaker at a Gang Prevention session on Monday, December 22, 2008 at 6:00 p.m. at Los Adobes de Maria 2 housing complex, 1148 West Boone Street in Santa Maria.

The presentation is free and open to the public and is hosted by People's Self-Help Housing.

A former gang member in Chicago, Flores uses his life experience to touch the hearts of children and adults who are involved in gangs or who may be at-risk of gang involvement. Flores will go over what parents need to do to keep children away from gangs.

Flores is an accomplished motivational speaker who presents all over the country. For more information on the speaker visit www.robertogflores.com.

For more information call Alejandra Mahoney at Los Adobes de Maria Youth Education Center at (805) 348-3823 x206.
