Peoples' Self-Help Housing Hosts Predatory Lending Seminar on January 14, 2009 in Guadalupe

Peoples' Self-Help Housing is hosting a "Predatory Lending Seminar" on Wednesday, January 14, 2008 from 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. at River View Townhomes, 230 Calle Cesar Chavez, in Guadalupe.

The free seminar will address concerns about questionable mortgages. It is facilitated by Brian Kerrigan, Housing Counselor for Peoples' Self-Help Housing (PSHH). A graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, Kerrigan holds a degree in business administration/finance and most recently worked as a loan officer for Chase Bank. Kerrigan is multi-lingual and is fluent in Spanish.

PSHH is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to provide affordable housing and programs leading to self-sufficiency for low-income families, seniors, and other special needs groups on California's Central Coast. Since its establishment in 1970, PSHH has assisted over 1,000 individuals or families build their own self-help home.

To reserve your space call People's at (805) 781-3088. For a complete schedule of First Time Home Buyers Seminars or Home Foreclosure Prevention Seminars in Central Coast communities, visit www.pshhc.org.
