Peoples' Self-Help Housing Hosts First-Time Home Buyer Education Seminar November 4th, in Atascadero

Peoples' Self-Help Housing is hosting a "First-Time Home Buyer Education Seminar" on Wednesday, November 4th, 2009 from 6:30 – 8:30 p.m. at Rabobank, 6950 El Camino Real, in Atascadero.

The free seminar will present different alternatives and loan options for first time home buyers and provide them with information they need to make wise purchase and loan decisions. Workshop attendees, who need further assistance, will be able to set up individual appointments with bi-lingual PSHH housing counselors.

This workshop will be facilitated by Brian Kerrigan, Housing Counselor for Peoples' Self-Help Housing (PSHH). A graduate of the University of Massachusetts-Amherst, Kerrigan holds a degree in business administration/finance and most recently worked as a loan officer for Chase Bank. Kerrigan is multi-lingual and fluent in Spanish, and also facilitates our Foreclosure Prevention Workshops.

PSHH also offers Foreclosure Prevention Workshops, please check our website www.pshhc.org for more information.

PSHH is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to provide affordable housing and programs leading to self-sufficiency for low-income families, seniors, and other special needs groups on California's Central Coast. Since its establishment in 1970, PSHH has assisted over 1,000 individuals or families build their own self-help home.

To reserve your space call People's at (805) 781-3088. For a complete schedule of First Time Home Buyers Seminars or Home Foreclosure Prevention Seminars in Central Coast communities, visit www.pshhc.org.

This seminar is sponsored by Bank of America, Coast National Bank, Rabobank and Peoples' Self-Help Housing.
